

FINDING OUR WAY BACK TO THE ANCIENT PATHS

SACRIFICE

Greetings Beloved,

How are you doing?

Just found out about this poem written in these times and thought to share it with you;

And the people stayed home. And read books, and listened, and rested, and exercised, and made art, and played games, and learned new ways of being, and were still. And listened more deeply. Some meditated, some prayed, some danced. Some met their shadows. And the people began to think differently. And the people healed. And, in the absence of people living in ignorant, dangerous, mindless, and heartless ways, the earth began to heal. And when the danger passed, and the people joined together again, they grieved their losses, and made new choices, and dreamed new images, and created new ways to live and heal the earth fully, as they had been healed.

- Kitty O'Meara

As we continue to tarry at home whilst this plague blows over, while we continue to pray for all the people in the front lines of this war and for many others who have lost their loved ones to this terrible virus, what are we doing with the time now given to us?

WHETHER WE ARE ALONE OR WITH FAMILY?

WHAT CHOICES ARE YOU MAKING?

WHAT SACRIFICES ARE YOU MAKING OR WILL MAKE TO ENSURE EVERYONE IS DOING OK?

The path of sacrifice is one borne out of love in its purest form. It is one that chooses to do just because you want the best for the other person.

This week, our path is SACRIFICE (see previous editions)

As we celebrate Easter this Sunday, let us remember the ultimate sacrifice that was offered on our behalf by a Father who loved us despite our failings; Jesus Christ

This is
LOVE
NOT THAT WE LOVED GOD
but that
HE LOVED US AND SENT HIS SON
as an atoning sacrifice for our sins

1 John 4:10

Our text is taken from
ROMANS 3:25

<sup>25</sup> “For God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin. People are made right with God when they believe that Jesus sacrificed his life, shedding his blood. This sacrifice shows that God was being fair when he held back and did not punish those who sinned in times past” (NLT)

Christ died for our sins that we may be reconciled to God and come under a new covenant with Him.

He loved us so much, he chose to die a most unpleasant death. He still loves us and calls us to a life in Him. Forsaking all to follow Him. Making the ultimate sacrifice of giving ourselves to Him for life and into eternity.

JESUS

So therefore;

Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that openly profess his name. And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

(Hebrews 13:15-16)

GO AHEAD AND MAKE THAT SACRIFICE OF LOVE FOR OTHERS. GOD LOVES YOU!

PRAYER

Father, thank you for grace to do good works that you have created me to do. Amen

CHARGE

Forgo something that will cost you to provide comfort to others.

Reflect. Repent. Return

SONG

I AM LOVED/THERE IS NOTHING BETTER BY MAVERICK MUSIC
